

Shades of Truth

Viva Kittery..proudly announces the arrival of new " life expert" ..Alfred N. Sense.

What a pleasure it is for America's smallest " newspaper" to receive such a contributor. An actual " life expert".. you know.. literally anyway.

His first, subtle dwelling was about the words.. The Truth..

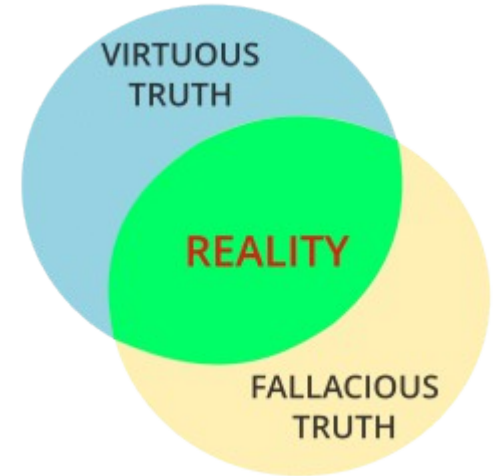

His notes..which are all we allowed to see at this point..because monetary evaluations.. " salary".. have not been concluded yet..

Include in part a series about the truth which we are allowed to print!! Exciting isn't it?!!

Here follows some notes..

" The truth", he allows, in note form , is an exclusionary idea which seems to prevail cosmically in spite of the elusive light in which we see it. We see it in darkness Alfred admits, as we see all things through our mind which provides exclusionary tones, ...yet minds .. which seem to share obvious realities that are shared in prevalent or common realities shared among all people.

Like ... I am thirsty.. go get me some water! This truth is exclusionary to the one who thirsts bur is shared in an immediate request..or command.. in tones less represented by truth such as asking..requesting, partitioning, allowing for such , or demanding in regard of circumstance, or common and general terms .."as a cry for water" ...etc; or in lesser tones a request for a drink...which in polite society is an order given and taken for a price not withstanding the demeanor of the request.. as such reference may be applied to a restaurant for instance .. where the surroundings are compromised by cost more than need. But the truth excluded or included the primary idea of thirst, in regards to the larger social or conventional cradles which supply the original idea of thirst, which perpetually; despite the actual terms of the need itself which is generally limited to the actual term of what thirst is!!

Alfred paused here..in his notes he wrote, " i pause here" ...to allow for my readers to dwell a moment..on thirst.. is it Truth, or fiction? Is thirst a simple immediate circumstance or a life long reoccurring nightmare which is never fully resolved???

We leave you here.. thirsty or not..awaiting for our editors to sort thru other notes to publish..!! All notes are scribbled on napkins and are hard to read and decipher!!
