

60 Seconds

Viva Kittery's very own TV reporter Seith Knocks has a lead on a new possible show.

Seith says its a knockoff of the show 60 minutes..in his opinion anyway.

The show ..60 seconds..highlights the new age minute by minute age we live in. The skits I saw were hilarious but it doesn't give you much time to react.. he faltered here to explain why.

"The broadcast is done in a new beta transmission.. VBP... A light stream broadcast that you view with special goggles that actually imprints the show directly onto your head. After the broadcast you feel like " something funny happened"... and in fact Seith went on..something funny did!

Seith admitted having to wear special goggles for a beta test transmission would indicate potential " weirdness" problems ... " but we didn't have to sign anything so I went ahead with it!

The way it works..to shorten the intrigue here.. is that it downloads thousands of episodes in 60 seconds and then you order different foods which once eaten " unlock a series " of the episodes.. while you are sleeping.

OMG SEITH said... I had no idea how cool this is until I ordered my first " unlock the new you" meal.

The meals are sold under a theme called " view watchers"

Seith suspects this is a take off from weight watchers. You will definitely loose weight... Seith conceded.. ive lost 65 pounds and feel good and trim at 6' 2 and 130 pounds. I can't explain it but I know its not actually healthy.

Seith's eyes were very enlarged as he showed up to deliver his articles. He said..I'm not sure what a beta test is but somethings going on.

He explained that after eating the dinner you are overcome with drowsiness and have a vision of falling asleep in front of the TV.!

Then the shows start.. if you want to remember what you " watched" you have to buy the dessert too.

My first show I woke up in a drenched sweat and quickly ordered the dessert for tonight's showing. "I wish I hadn't he admitted" .. but please stay tuned for this new program in VSB.. and buy the show 60 seconds... by ordering the unlock meal called... rice with gluten and chicken type gravy.. the dessert you need to order is melted cheesecake on ice cream.

You will either love it or hate it..but Seith says.. you will probably never go to the gym again! Or anywhere else for that fact!

We have sent people out to check on Seith after reading his contribution.
